

Inshore Participatory Monitoring (IPM) workshop - 2017

INTERESTS

- Local baseline knowledge and awareness
- Ecosystem health
- Habitat and species distribution
- Water quality and pollutants
- Fisheries activities and impacts

- Enable local participation in decision making
- Plan future research and monitoring
- Increase community involvement
- Share communication of data
- Support skills development

AIMS

- Community involvement in existing monitoring
- Pooled resources
- Community-led joint funding proposals
- Build community capacity and networks

COLLABORATION

